

Intern /

Student Employee (m/f/d)

Global Alliance Management

Become inspired by the diversity of our topics -
and together with us, make the difference

Your responsibilities

- Support the management of the Industries & Accounts Team
- Contribute to the development of industry-specific enablement and go-to-market material
- Support the Industries & Accounts Lead in advising Client Service Teams to identify high potential Alliance-related solutions for client issues.
- Own the Alliance Learning map series of monthly learning session

Your skills

- Bachelor's degree in economics, business informatics, computer Science or a commercial training
- High interest in new technologies and a basic understanding of their principle application in the business context
- Ideally some relevant experience like internships in the areas of business development focusing on international management and innovation.
- Excellent computer skills, especially in the popular Microsoft Office programs, V. A. Excel, PowerPoint, SharePoint

Become part of our team, and together we will tackle the challenges that propel the business world. Learn about graduate and career development opportunities, the issues that drive us and about our application process.

We look forward to receiving your online application with the job code: 147405BR.

Request further details from Kirsten Kronberg-Peukert at 0800 5764 562 (0800 KPMG JOB).